

Talking with My School – Guidelines
Churchlands Primary School

As a parent or carer, you play a vital role in your child's learning. At Churchlands Primary School, we believe that building a positive relationship between home and school plays an important part in the education of your child. Effective communication is the key to the success of this relationship.

We are committed to responding promptly and helpfully to your enquiries, concerns, suggestions and compliments as outlined in the Raising Concerns Policy.

We also provide information about support services for children with additional needs, intensive language classes, special programs and our policies and procedures. Below is some useful information as a guide if you require avenues to raise an enquiry or concern.

Where to start

Before contacting us with an enquiry or concern, we suggest you:

- talk with family and friends to clarify your enquiry or concern
- write down your enquiry or concern
- make a list of relevant information specific to your enquiry or concern
- take a support person with you if you feel nervous about talking about your enquiry or concern.

It is expected the vast majority of matters will be raised and managed by the school. These include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• child(ren)'s learning, development and wellbeing;</li> <li>• supporting in classrooms;</li> <li>• the organisation, delivery and management of school activities and programs; and</li> <li>• queries, concerns and complaints.</li> </ul>	Matters relating to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• community initiatives;</li> <li>• school uniform sales and enquiries;</li> <li>• parent directory;</li> <li>• school canteen;</li> <li>• volunteering;</li> <li>• P&amp;C fundraising and community events (Lapathon, stalls, Book Fair, Sundowners etc)</li> </ul>	Matters relating to; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• broad strategic directions as articulated in the Business Plan;</li> <li>• Board meetings and membership; and</li> <li>• Major sponsorship opportunities</li> </ul>

The next step is to arrange an appointment with the most appropriate person at the school. This can be done by phoning the main office or speaking or emailing the person directly.

So that we can deal with your enquiry or concern thoroughly and effectively, we ask that you direct it to the most appropriate person. The information below is designed to help you.

Class Teacher

We expect that your child's class teacher is the most appropriate person to address the majority of your enquiries or concerns including:

- Emotional wellbeing (happiness at school or other factors that may affect learning e.g. Changes in family circumstances, serious illness, bereavement)
- Social wellbeing (friendships matters, bullying)
- General behaviour (incidents at school or home)
- Academic progress
- Homework
- Assessment
- Attendance
- Any other aspect of school life that is impacting on your child's education.

NB If your enquiry or concern relates to a specialist teacher e.g. Art, music, physical education, STEM, French, please direct your enquiry or concern directly to that teacher.
